CARD FROM GENERAL BEAUREGARD.

In a note to The Baltimore Gazette, General Beauregard alludes to a published report of remarks alleged to have been made by him at a dinner given to him by a friend in New York. He says the report gives an by a friend in New York. He says the report gives an erroneous impression of the views expressed by him while conversing with the few friends present, and adds:

Being still an "outlaw" in my own native country, I do nat feel called upon to uphold its Government, especially at this time, when the country is divided in opinion as to whether Cougress or the Executive constitutes "the Government." But I am free to state, that unless the Conservative element of the nation soon awakens to the dangers which threaten the liberties of the country, I confidently believe that its form of government will ere long be changed to a military despetism, after a period of anarchy more or less prolonged. Yours, very fruly,

SPEECH OF SENATOR WADE. CINCINNATI, Sept. 22 .- At a meeting in the Court-st. market space last evening, Senator Wade made a stirring speech. He said : Some Republican papers a stirring speech. He said: Some Republican papers had been carping at him lately because he neglected to dilate on the rights of labor, but he wished to inform the world that the proudest period of his life was when he worked upon a canal as a common laborer. He worked with Irishmen, and did his work as well as any of them, and he wished some of his old Irish friends were present to listen to bis utterance. He was the first to suggest the abolition of imprisonment for debt, and the first to work through Congress the Homestead bill. Referring to his Kansas speech, he said it was an entire forgery. He attached himself to the Republican party because it helped to build up the horer, and he wished to impress on his Irish friends the fact that they had allied themselves to their pointfeal emenies. His own idea was to rescale labor from the contempt and hardship to which it was subjected, but his older Irish co-laborers were averse to that because they failed in sympathy for laborers of African descent. He thought the Republican party the purest and greatest that ever existed; but if they do not continue in their cause of righteousness, the Almighty, who has been supporting them up to this time, will very soon descert them. Alluding to the efforts of Southern representatives to get seats in Congress, he said, Washington would have himg the same men, but a traitorous and treatherous President, Andrew Johnson, had invited these same Rebels to come back and take a part in the Government. As for himself, a Rebel and he should never sit side by side. He believed that the conquered States of the South lay at the mercy of Congress, and that it would be unsafe to allow Rebels to come back to Cengress, where, in fellowship with the Democracy of the North, they could accomplish the destruction of the Republican party; that his recent acts were in deflance of Congress, but that there was a power in front of the throne which may yet prove stronger flant the throne itself. had been carping at him lately because he neglected to

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 22 .- The approaching convention of ex-Federal officers, soldiers, and sallors, to be held on Tuesday, occasions a good deal of anxiety in be held on Tuesday, occasions a good deal of anxiety in political circles here. They meet to define their status, and, if possible, to adopt a Republican platform that the majority of the people in the State can inderse. The exciliers and soldiers now resident here, numbering 1,100, wield a considerable influence in the politics of the State, and, I have authority for stating, will adopt active measures to secure the election of good men for the Constitutional Convention. They will be decidedly opposed to all political adventurers, and have no sympathy whatever with men of the order of Hunnientt, who commands the respect of neither blacks nor whites.

THE DEMOCRACY ORGANIZING. St. Louis, Sept. 22.-The Democracy of Kansas held a Covention in Leavenworth last week, and adopted a platform, made preparations for meeting the Radicals on the stump, and prosecuting a vigorous campaign aginst negro suffrage. It is claimed that the Republican party is much split on the question of female suffrage, temperance, and the Sunday laws. The Germans will hold a Convention at Topeka on the 28th to consider the latter question, and the State Temperance Society will meet in Leavenworth this week for the alleged purpose of looking after the Germans.

MR. PENDLETON ON REPUDIATION.

The Democrats of Cleveland, Ohio, having renaded Mesers. George H. Pendleton and George E. Pugh, at a hotel in that city, on the evening of the 18th inst., Mr. Pendleton in his response took occasion to explain his position in relation to the payment of the five-twenty bonds. He said:

"Let me state to you the position. We have an enormous debt. We have alrate of taxation beyond all example oppressive. We have alrate of taxation beyond all example oppressive. We have alrate of taxation beyond all example for them. I did not vote for them, and an not responsible for them. They are great evils. They ought to be gotten rid of. And if they present any means of assisting us in getting rid of them we ought to seize it. The non-interest paying debt, consisting of greenback and unliquidated debt, amounts to about $$50,00,000. The proposition of the Republicans is to convert this debt into bonds will be $15,000,000 in gold annually. The result will be to increase by that amount the expenses, to convert active capital into inactive capital, and thus to increase the humber of those who do not pay taxes, and to increase the humber of those who do not pay taxes, and to increase the humber of those who do not pay taxes, and to increase the humber of those who do not pay taxes, and to increase the humber of those who do not pay taxes, and to increase the humber of those who do not pay taxes, and to increase the humber of those who do not pay taxes, and to increase the humber of those who do not pay taxes, and to increase the humber of those who do not make the secondary of the result would be saved. There are four hundred millions of these bonds in the Treasury as security for the National Bank currency. They are represented by a hearly equal amount of bank notes. They call for twenty-four millions of dollars in gold annually; as interest. Now, I maintain that these bonds should be redeemed in greenbacks. The result would be that the greenbacks would take the place of the bank notes, which would be called in, and that twenty-four millions the necessary and this, properly compounded, would pay the whole debt, princi Pugh, at a hotel in that city, on the evening of the 18th inst., Mr. Pendleton in his response took occasion to ex-

Andrews was elected President, and Mr. James W. Booth Secretary. Mr. Andrews, on taking the chair, claimed that the organization is regular, and of right entitled that the organization is regular, and of right entitled to be admitted in the Convention at Syracuse. He said that in 1864, when two different delegations appeared at Syracuse, both claimed to be regular, and both were admitted, but the Convention instructed the State Central Committee to take measures to reorganize the party, but the State Central Committee to take measures to reorganize the party, higher the State Central Committee to take measures to reorganize the party, and himself to perform that duty; that a remodeling was ordered by them, and the party reorganized. The result was the present organization, known as the Union Republican party, now met at these hendquarters, and as such it was regular, and in his opinion would be so regarded by the State Convention. He added that the delegates selected have been members of the Republican party since its organization, and have never voted any other than the Republican ticket. In 1865 Joseph B. Taylor ran as the condidate for Supervisor, and polled 18,000 votes on the nomination of this party organization alone, and the organization chains that this is a greater Republican vote than was polled by any candidate of the other organization. At the close of his remarks arrangements were made for a meeting of the city delegation at Syracuse on Tuesday next.

Mexican papers publish the following letter from President Juarez on the Presidency:

Mr Illustrators Friend: Peace seems at last to be dawning over our distracted country, and I shall indeed be glad when the elections are over and all discordant clements subdued. I forwarded you a copy of my letter resigning all claim to the Presidency; but so importunate have been the persuasions of my friends, and especially of Gen. Diaz and the army, that I have reluctantly consented to the use of my name in the coming elections. It would have been more desirable to use to have retired from a position the duties of which I have endeavored faithfully to perform throughout those long dark years of oppression and misfortane. My only object in consenting to be a candidate is for the purpose of frustrating the wicked designs of men who care very little for the welfare and happiness of our poor country.

By the hands of Señor Don Guerra I send you several documents, which will show you what course I have been pursuing in regard to the enemies and traitors of Mexico. My sole ambition is peace for Mexico, and prosperity for her people. It matters not to use to what patriot hands its destinies are confided, so that our beloved and unfortunate nation is happy. Extremely auxious as I am to return to private life, I shall shrink from no duty confided to me by a brave and suffering people.

I still hear of dissensions on the northern frontier. Advise our friends to abide by the decision of the popular will, to avoid lawlessness, and return to the business pursuits of life, for therein prosperity lies. Above all, assure citizens from the States who are abiding with you that the supreme Government of Mexico holds in high esteem the services of the great republic of the north in their behalf in the recent crisis, and that its citizens shall be well projected.

Now, farewell! My friend Senor Guerra will convey to your method had a failed on the content of the content of the popular when her had not on the content of the popular while the he from President Juarez on the Presidency:

PLATTE-GEN. SHERMAN'S ADDRESS TO THE INDIANS. Sr. Louis, Sept. 22.—A special dispatch to The cpublican from Omaha has the following: The Council at North Platte resulted in nothing conclusive. The Indians frankly stated the causes of the trouble. Gen. Sherman, on behalf of the Commission, delivered an answer which was plain, sharp and explicit. If the Indians, he said, hold Smoky Hill, the road must be built. They must not interfere with the Government. He supposed the road was agreed upon by the Cheyennes four years ago. The military posts and mail stations built two years ago, were not considered a cause for war-If the Indians are damaged, they will receive compensa tion. He supposed also that they had agreed on the Powder River road in the Laramie treaty last Spring While the Indians continued to wage war, the road will not be given up; but if the Indians right is found good. it will be given up, or compensation therefor be paid, if they keep peace. Powder and lead would not be given them until a definite treaty was made. be given them until a definite treaty was made. A railroad train had been attacked and men were killed, who had no guus, but were bringing goods, some of which were to feed the Indians. A proposition was then submitted for the Indians to accept homes on the new reservations, and they were given until the first of November to answer at the Council to be held at North Platte; at the same time they could hunt on the Republican. The General also represented that we were building costly roads, and they could not be stopped no more than the sun and moon in the cast. You hardly think, he said, what you call war here is, but if you make up your minds it will come to the Plains thick where there are the largest herds of buildions and kill you all. He also told the Indians that if they wanted to go East and see for themselves, they would be "dead-headed" through.

to go Fast and set for themselves, they would be taken headed. Through.

The Chief responded that they only asked for ammunition which the Commission finally concluded to give. The Commission returned to Omaha to day and will separate to meet at Fort Harker, Kansas, on the 8th of October. Gen. Sherman will come to St. Louis via Chleago.

FAILURE OF THE MONTANA EXPEDITION. St. Louis, Sept. 22.-At the Council held by the Peace Commissioners, at which peace was declared with the Brules and Ogallailas, Scuator Henderson and Gen. Sherman made speeches to the Indians. Gen. Sher-Gen. Sherman made speeches to the Indians. Gen. Sherman said; "If you don't leave the roads alone I will kill you, and I will give you neither powder nor ball till you make peace." Pawnee-Killer, Chief of the Cheyennes, left the Council in disgust. The Council will meet again at North Platte, on the 1st of November, when ammunition will be given to the peaceful tribes.

The Mondana Post says that the 7th Regiment of Volunteers have returned to Camp Meagher, having failed to overtake the Yellow Stone Indians. They will start again on the 9th inst, on an expedition against the "Crows," on Sweetwater. There is no doubt of the hostility of the Crows, as they are continually committing depredations.
